ALL DISTRESS FROM INDIGESTION
OR AN UPSET STOMACH VANISHES

Does it ever occur to you how busy that little stomach of yours is? It actually only holds three pints, though in one year you force it to take in 2500 pounds of material, digest it and prepare it for assimilation to the blood. Do you wonder at the number of cases of Indigestion and Stomach trouble? You crowd it with steaks and pastry, irritate its juices with spices and acids and expect this little four-ounce mill to do its work.

Is there any wonder that your food passes undigested, or lays like a lump of lead in the stomach? That everything you eat turns to acid. Stomach gas and Stomach poison, putrefying the intestines and digestive canal, causing Bloating, Headaches, Dizziness and Indigestion, Heartburn, Nauseous Breath, constipation and other more dangerous symptoms?

Call your disease what you will—Indigestion, Gastritis, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Catarrh of Stomach, etc.—you know the real name, the real disease is fermentation of the food you eat—a sour Stomach, which belches gas and eructs undigested food or causes a feeling of nausea and miserableness. All these miseries vanish promptly when you stop this food fermentation. Take fifty cents to your Pharmacist for a case of Pape's Diapensin. Eat Stomach will do what a healthy Stomach should—that is, turn every bite you eat into bodily nourishment and without you realizing that you have a Stomach. One triangle will digest all the food you eat without the aid of the stomach, because it contains just the elements found in a good, strong, healthy stomach.

AMUSEMENTS

IN SALT LAKE THEATERS.

SALT LAKE THEATRE—"The Girl Question." Evening, 8:15.

COLONIAL THEATRE—"Sham Rho." with Arthur Cunningham. Matinee, 2:15. Evening, 8:15.

THE BUNGALOW—"La Tosca." with Bungalow Stock company. Matinee, 2:15. Evening, 8:15.

ORPHEUM THEATRE—"Advanced vaudeville." Matinee, 2:15. Evening, 8:15.

GRAND THEATRE—"On the Stroke of Twelve." Matinee, 2:15. Evening, 8:15.

LYRIC THEATRE—Moving pictures. Matinee, 2. Evening, 7.

If there was nothing but the overture at the Salt Lake theater on Wednesday evening that alone would have been worth the price of admission, for it was a magnificent rendition. Coupled with this, however, were the Ben Greet players, who present "The Tempest." It was a pure presentation of Shakespeare's comedy, which, with the music of the Russian Symphony orchestra, made a splendid production. "The Tempest" closed the engagement.

Patrons of the Bungalow theater will be surprised and undoubtedly very sorry to learn of the resignation of James Rennie, leading man for the Bungalow stock company, whose work here is worthy of the highest praise. He has won a home in the hearts of the Salt Lake theatergoers.

"Sham Rho," as interpreted by Arthur Cunningham and his very capable company, is still pleasing large audiences at the Colonial theater. It runs the balance of the week, with matinee today and Saturday.

As there is no school today, it being Arbor day, it gives every child an opportunity of seeing that wonderful Tschernoff unique drama troupe at the Orpheum. Beautiful little parties that do everything but talk—one of them plays on bells.

"On the Stroke of Twelve" is proving most pleasing bill to the patrons of the Grand. The work of the company is received with hearty applause at each performance.

"The Girl Question," the musical comedy by Frank R. Adams and Will M. Hodge, will be seen at the Salt Lake theater tonight.

Mary Hall is playing the role of La Tosca at the Bungalow this week. Crowded houses have greeted her.
